

There are two reasons why EXHAUST NOTES are not as voluminous as you or I might like this month, and here they are:

1. We have to print 169 copies.
2. Nobody(hardly) wrote anything.

Reason #2 has "hardly" in it because all the pages herein are not blank, And for that we owe thanks to Bonnie Wright, a poet, who wrote:

To Les we want to send our best,
 (Thon we all know deserves arest)
 For all the griping he has done
 To make"exhaust Notes" a lot of fun.

He's functioned with low overhead
 Because of brevity of copy to spread.
 Then when his nerves are taut as thread
 And his face has turned a very bright red

You'll know the day has finally come
 When all you'll see is a blank page
 That'll show how fruitful was his rage.

---
 I'm humbled but flattered Bonnie Wright,
 So, I had to put your poem to type,
 You've said in quite another way
 What I have often tried to say.

I know you know you're no Ogden Nash,
 But neither is one L.G.Nash,
 But thanks agin, and try agin,
 So "Exhaust Notes" doesn't get too thin.

Anyone that missed the November 3 meeting missed a good laugh!

Mac and Al told about he all night rally "MAC'S MADNESS"; and many of the incidents that occurred were unbelievable!--I always thought Mac was a good rallymaster!!!--WELL, the errors made were impossible.
For instande(sic) --one check point all the cars
had gone through before the Check Point Crew Arrived.
ANOTHER---three cars came through, and then the Crew waited nearly two hours before any more cars came!!!
Instead of arriving at the Pancake House at 6:00 A.M.
for breakfast, they arrived at 7:00 A.M!!!! Oh well, such are the pitfalls made by rallymasters! From all I heard, nobody complained. And, everyone out that night in all the madness had a good time.

The October 22 COOK OUT at Slavik's Pavillon on the Elkhorn was a success. The food was good;
drinking plentiful: and stories long, large, funny and plentiful.

See you atv the AWARD BANQUET or maybe even atthe
POKER RALLY ON NOVEMBER 20. --It starts at the SOUTH
ROADS. Register at 12:30. First Car OFF AT 1:00.

Say, DOU TIE HELM ---WHAT ARE YOU GOING TO DO WITH THAT $2.00(TWO) DOLLARS??.
